Marie asked if we were doing summer conformation classes and Margie announced she will run next Wednesday's conformation class for the remainder of the summer and will work with Michelle Wright to cover classes when needed or find someone else. (Anne Schmidt will do the fall classes).

Marie mentioned that the recent workshops announced were not communicated the best to the board. Everyone agreed the new workshops were a great idea but need to get communicated in the newsletter.

Jackie reviewed several skill workshops in Nose work. July 23rd will be skill building and the dog has to be on odor. It will be from 10 am – 12 pm. August 28th Pat Flynn has a transmission business in Kimberly and there will be a skill building sniff & go class there. In September, the club can rent a local Town Hall building for $20 for a sniff & go workshop.

Jackie also mentioned that the Farm Dog event on October 15th will also have trick dog testing at the same time.

Class size was reviewed and it was determined that the size is right for now and Chanin can review in her new role, Director of Training – Family Dog, this fall.
